

CONSTITUTION FOR THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF MASSACHUSETTS (2007)

(updated 9/18/11)

Article I : Name, Establishing Authority, and Purpose

Section 1.

The name of the organization is the Classical Association of Massachusetts (C.A.M.)

Section 2.

This document shall replace and supersede all previous constitutions of the Classical Association of Massachusetts and is duly adopted by a unanimous vote of the general membership of the Association in attendance at its regular spring business meeting on March 31, 2007.

Section 3.

The purpose of the Classical Association of Massachusetts shall be to promote, initiate, improve, and extend the study of Classical languages and civilizations by enlisting public support and encouraging an interchange of ideas and materials among Classics teachers at all levels of education in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Section 4.

To attain these purposes, the Classical Association of Massachusetts shall

- publish a newsletter (currently known as the CAMEl Courier),
- conduct a spring meeting to transact business in conjunction with speakers and/or workshops,
- maintain representation on the boards of the Classical Association of New England (CANE),
the Massachusetts Foreign Language Association ( MaFLA), The Massachusetts Junior Classical League (MJCL), and the Council of the American Classical League (ACL)
- assist the Massachusetts Junior Classical League,
- elicit, sponsor, and coordinate sessions in the field of Classics at the meetings of the Massachusetts Foreign Language Association (MaFLA),
- sponsor and coordinate the Massachusetts portions of CANE events and contests,
- maintain and update a website of the organization's endeavors and Classical events
- make an annual award to a teacher at any level for "Excellence in the Teaching of Classics"
- and engage in such other activities as may be appropriate or as are specified in the bylaws.

Section 5.

The Classical Association of Massachusetts shall be supported by dues, membership fees, voluntary contributions, endowments, bequests, or in such a manner and through the transaction of business as the membership may deem advisable for the best interests of the Association as indicated by a vote of the membership.

Section 6.

The Classical Association of Massachusetts shall be an unincorporated not for profit association. The private property of the members and officers shall not be subject to the payment of the debts of the Classical Association of Massachusetts to any extent whatsoever.

Section 7.

Since the Classical Association of Massachusetts has been established and is operated exclusively for educational purposes, no part of its net earnings shall ever be used for the personal benefit of any member or officer. In the event of its termination or dissolution, any assets remaining after the payment of any and all debts shall be divided evenly and assigned to the American Classical League and the Classical Association of New England.

Article II : Membership

Section 1.

Membership in the Classical Association of Massachusetts shall be open to all teachers of Classical languages, culture, and civilizations and to all others who support the purposes of the Association. Membership shall be conveyed upon payment of the regular membership dues as specified in the bylaws and upon fulfillment of other provisions listed in the bylaws.

Article III : Officers and Powers

Members-at-large (total of 2, if they have been appointed)

Section 2.

The CANE, MAFLA, MJCL and ACL representatives shall serve either a three-year renewable term or a term whose length is governed by the rules of the organization which each represents.

Section 3.

The state shall be divided into eight approximate regions:

- 1) Northshore (generally North of Route 128 and East of Route 3)
- 2) Greater Boston (generally within the Route 128 belt)
- 3) Southshore (generally East of Route 95 but outside the Route 128 belt and North of Route 44)
- 4) Southeastern Massachusetts (generally South of Route 44 & West of the Bourne and Sagamore Bridges)
- 5) Cape Cod (generally East of the Bourne and Sagamore Bridges)
- 6) Western Suburbs (generally within the Route 495 belt and between Route 3 and Route 95)
- 7) Central Massachusetts (generally West of Route 495 to the Quabbin Reservoir)
- 8) Western Massachusetts (generally West of the Quabbin Reservoir)

(N.B. Region 8 will be served by the already existing Pioneer Valley Classical Association)

Each region should have a representative on the CAM Board of Directors. The regional representatives may serve as officers of their respective regional organization and shall represent their respective regions on the Board of Directors. Alternates may also be appointed but each region shall have only one vote.

Section 4.

The regional representatives may be appointed/elected by the regional organization of the area they represent in cases where such an organization exists (e.g. the Western Massachusetts region is served by the already existing Pioneer Valley Classical Association) or appointed by the Executive Committee in cases where such an organization does not exist or has lapsed. The regional representatives will serve a three-year term which is renewable or a term whose length is governed by the rules of the organization which each represents.

Section 5.

The Board of Directors shall meet at least once prior to each meeting of the general membership to plan the meetings, report on the state of Classics in their regions, assist the Executive Committee, and to plan the other events of the Association. In cases where distance makes attendance in person a hardship, such Directors may communicate with the rest of the Board via proxy, teleconference, or other electronic/communicative technology.

Section 6.

Regional representatives shall be prepared to report on regional activities at meetings of the Board. Regional representatives shall attempt to hold at least one meeting in their region per year. Such meetings will provide a forum for information from the Classical Association of Massachusetts to be dispersed to the regional membership and will provide opportunities for teachers to share ideas and discuss topics of interest in the study of Classics and pedagogy and send feedback to the Classical Association of Massachusetts.

Section 7.

Members-at-large may be appointed by the President in order to represent areas of the profession which are under represented on the Board, or because they possess particular expertise which may be helpful to the Board. These Members will serve a three-year term which is renewable.
