

A SPECIAL EVENT FOR LATIN TEACHERS!

Sponsored by the Classical Association of Massachusetts, Clipeus, & the Umass Boston Department of Classics & Religious Studies

ACTIVE LATIN AT THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

The mission of the Classical Association of Massachusetts (CAM) is to support and advocate for all Latin teachers across the Commonwealth as well as to provide opportunities for collaboration and meaningful professional growth.

We cordially invite all Latin teachers from across MA to join us for a one-day (all-day) trip to New York City to visit the collection of Greek & Roman Art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art on Saturday, October 3. The bus ride to New York will include art history trivia, Latin games, and an activity swap / teacher exchange. The museum visit will feature an optional 2-hour spoken Latin tour of the collections hosted by our active Latin expert and CAM Vice-President, Prof. James Dobreff of UMass Boston. We will depart from the Riverside T station (exit #22 off of 95/128) at 6:00 a.m., making an additional stop in Western / Central MA (TBD) at approximately 7 a.m. We will tour the museum from 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. We will then visit “Eataly” downtown for an optional Cena Latina and an opportunity to stock up for the ride home. We should return to Western / Central MA at approximately 7 p.m. and Riverside at about 8 p.m. All participants will be awarded 10 content PDPs.

The cost of the trip (which includes admission to the museum) is $90. The cost for graduate students is $50.

We hope that you take advantage of this and other exciting opportunities that CAM will provide over the course of the 2015-16 academic year. On behalf of the executive board, I wish you all success in the classroom, and we look forward to meeting you throughout the year!
